WE HAVE TO SAY GOODBYE!

Learning Materials will not be producing trials exams in 2024, and consideration is being given to closing the business permanently.

This decision has not been undertaken lightly, and there were several contributing factors, which have led us to make this decision.

If you're thinking about a change of pace and an escape from the classroom, our goodwill, past questions, bank and website are all up for offer – you could bag yourself a bargain!

The website will be live until May 2024, to allow any outstanding downloads to be completed or to purchase any of our past exams at half price.

It's been a genuine pleasure working with you and we thank you wholeheartedly for your custom over the years.

PS: you can still order and instantly download our 2023 trial exams and tests (see over for more information).

Kind regards,

Philippa Hall
